T. B. Pavilion Abandonment Recommended

Sweeping changes in the setup of the San Mateo County Health Department are recommended by the United States Public Health Service as a result of its recent survey.

This was disclosed Monday when the 180-page report was received here from the USPHS office in San Francisco.

Twelve principal recommendations were made in the long-awaited report which was authorized by the county supervisors last Jan. 17 after it had been recommended by County Manager Frederick Peterson and a number of organizations, including the 24 in the San Mateo County Health Alliance.

First and foremost of the recommendations is one that a health district be formed to replace the present health setup, which was established in the county charter when it became effective July 1, 1933.

ALTERNATIVES TOLD

If this is not done, the survey recommends that the county charter be amended to provide for a new department with public health services separated from the functions of the health and welfare department. One other alternative is to constitute existing county public health services as a separate and distinct division of public health in the present department and appoint an assistant to the director of the public health department.

The report suggests that if none of these plans is followed, the qualification requirements for the director be revised to require him to be not over 45 when appointed and to possess "not less than the minimum qualifications currently prescribed for health officers by the Conference of State and Territorial Health Officers" and to have had three years administrative experience in public health work and hospital or institutional management.

The survey further suggests establishment of three principal offices under the division of public health: (1) Preventable diseases, (2) public health nursing, (3) sanitation.

OTHER CHANGES URGED

Other recommendations:

Transfer health school nursing to the proposed division of public health.

Discontinue use of tuberculosis pavilion at Community Hospital as such, "farming out" the T.B. patients to private institutions (this would reduce cost, it is figured) and using the pavlioin for an isolation ward.

Plan to increase health expenditures to $1 per capita level (present cost is about 70 cents per capita).

Establish a section for vital statistics "under the direction of a trained vital statistician."

Maintain records and graphs, spot maps, etc.

Provide free diagnostic service and free anti-syphilitic drugs.

Enlarge the program to include "all standard public health services."

WOULD OUST VETERINARIAN

Dispense with the position of county veterinarian.

(The proposals in more detail are carried in today's Tribune.)

The report, prepared under Medical Director Francis A. Carmelia with seven associates collaborating, includes a foreword giving history of the health setup and forces leading to the request for the survey; the summary of recommendations; a map of the county; "general considerations" by Surgeons Fred T. Foard and J. E. Dunn; a "review of the existing authority," by Dr. Carmelia and Surgeon Dunn; charts of the existing organization and of the proposed organization; a discussion of existing facilities and organization; considerations of communicable disease control, public health nursing, tuberculosis control, syphilis and gonorrhea control, milk sanitation, environmental sanitation, general hospitalization and public medical care facilities; the conduct of the survey, and a discussion of the reorganization proposals.

Rights-of-Way Being Bought

Prospect that the State Highway Commission would call for bids within six months for widening El Camino Real between Broadway and Five Points in Redwood City, and on a portion of the work in Menlo Park, was seen Monday.

Col. John H. Skeggs, division engineer, said it would require at least that much time to complete engineering studies and to purchase the needed rights-of-way.

"We have purchased some pieces," he said, "but it will require considerable time to acquire the others. We are going ahead slowly on this matter, and we may be forced to make some changes even after we call for bids."

Major difficulty, he said, was the drainage problem. A heavy concrete conduit must be constructed in the westerly sidewalk area north of Five Points, he said, and engineers would have a difficult problem on their hands.

The finished roadway would be 100 feet wide, with 80 feet for automobile traffic flanked by two 10 foot pavements.

The proposed improvement will extend for a block or two south of Five Points, according to Colonel Skeggs.

In Menlo Park the commission plans to widen two of the worst "bottleneck" blocks to relieve traffic congestion there, Colonel Skeggs said.

The half-million dollar El Camino Real appropriation, originally set up for purchase of rights-of-way only, was released for construction as well, by the commission last week.

Budget Studies End; $240,383 Expenses Set

Port Self Supporting; Recreation Center Not Planned

Increased public services and new buildings to be enjoyed during the coming year will result in Redwood City taxpayers paying a rate 12 cents per $100 higher than last year, it appeared today following conclusion of the city council's last private session with the budget Monday night.

A 1939-40 budget calling for appropriations totaling $240,383.85 will be presented to the council formally next Monday night, City Manager C. L. Dimmitt said. At that time the council may adopt the budget without change; make changes and then adopt it, or may give further consideration to the proposed expenditures, postponing adoption until Aug. 21. The tax rate will be set at the first meeting in September.

4 RATES LISTED

As the budget stands now, the city's tax rates per $100 valuation will be:

Old Town	$1.305
Annexed territory	1.303
South Redwood and Carmelita Manor	1.185
Port area	.983

The annexed territory came into the city shortly after the turn of the century and pays taxes on everything except the 1900 street light bonds; the South Redwood and Carmelita Manor sections came in a decade ago and pay on all except the electric, 1904 and 1910 city hall bonds and street, bridge and sewer bonds issued prior to the time of annexation; the port area came in in 1937 and pays only on the city hall and library bonds in addition to regular city expenses. Should Friendly Acres, in which an election has been called, vote to come into the city, it would pay on none of the bonded indebtedness. This year's rate in that section would have been 92.6 cents per $100 valuation.

EXPENSES LISTED

The $240,383.85 required for general purposes this year includes the following items: General government, $14,705.40; city manager, $3940 (part of his salary is paid by the self-supporting water department); city clerk-treasurer department, $5029; city collector-assessor department, $6545; city engineer, $2100; city attorney, $3060; police judge, $1945; police department, $33,185; street department, $14,725; municipal buildings, $2900; public pound $2905; corporation yard, $2025; fire department, $26,853.71; building and health, $2600; sewer department, $3300; parks, $10,050; electrical department, $16,924; paint shop, $490; recreation, $4551; interest and redemption of bonds, $50,349.74; public library, $17,500; unbudgeted reserve, $5500; WPA projects, $4000; purchase of land, $5000.

Anticipated revenues likewise will be $240,383.85, which include the following items: General tax levy (69.2 cents), $95,487.32; interest and redemption of bonds levy (37.9 cents), $50,349.74; public library levy (12.7 cents), $17,500; unbudgeted reserve levy (4 cents), $5500; purchase of land levy (3.7 cents), $5000; cash advance by water department, $6500; business licenses, $11,200; delinquent taxes, $7000; water department bonds and interest, $2929.40, water department franchise, $2500; water department insurance, $1175; water department rental at city hall, $1200; personal property tax, $1200; tax penalties, $1500; interest from money on deposit, $1000; interest from bonds, $600; garbage collection, $2800; police court fines, $5000; pound fees, $1500; building, plumbing and electrical fees, $4000; liquor revenues, $7000; in lieu tax, $5400; P. G. & E. franchise, $2100; miscellaneous revenues, $50; bicycle licenses, $50; cash and bonds on hand July 1, $2157.61 deficit.

$15,170,055 VALUE

Total value of property on which the tax levy will be made is $15,170,055 — $5,629,890 in the "Old Town"; $8,494,000 in the annexed territory; $1,016,815 in South Redwood and Carmelita Manor, and $29,350 in the port area. When $479,095 in war exemptions are deducted and an allowance of 6 per cent made for delinquencies the budget value is $13,809,400—$5,253,300 in the Old Town ($1.305 rate raises $68,555.65 in tax money); $7,599,400 in the annexed territory ($1.303 rate raises $99,020.18); $292,200 in the South Redwood and Carmelita Manor districts ($1.185 rate raises $11,011.02) and $27,500 in the port area ($0.983 rate raises $270.32).

Total assessed valuation is up only about $100,000 over last year. Manager Dimmitt explained this is because a number of delinquent lots have been removed temporarily from the tax rolls under the city's plan to resell them.

HARBOR SELF-SUPPORTING

Disclosed with completion of the budget study were the following significant facts:

1. The Port of Redwood City, now in its second year of operation, is expected to be self-supporting during the coming year, as far as operations are concerned, only budget allowances being for amortization of the debt.

2. Increased expenses of city government and necessity of allowing for payments of the new city hall, library and port facilities prevented the council from including any funds this year for purchase of a recreation center, urged by numerous local organizations.

3. The recreation program, which it had hoped could be considerably enlarged, will remain about the same, with Director Alfred Morton continuing to work only part time.

4. No new jobs have been created nor any increases in pay granted with exceptions of $5 a month increases to several policemen and a few minor employes.

5. Construction of sidewalks on James Ave. and additional storm sewers likely will be undertaken this year, $4000 having been appropriated to match WPA funds for the projects.

INCREASES LISTED

The 12-cent increase in the tax rate is made up principally as follows: Library and city hall amortization, 5.7 cents; new harbor bond payments, 1.2 cents; increased library expenses, 1.7 cents; $1500 appropriation for Redwood City Model Home, 1.2 cents; city hall maintenance, .8 cents; insurance, .5 cents; aid to city bus line ($300), .3 cents; recreation, .5 cents.

Actually, City Manager Dimmitt said, the recreation expenditures this year likely will be no larger than last, but the appropriation is larger because that department overspent its budget.

Total departmental requests are some $1200 less than last year, Dimmitt said. One saving was effected in the health work, now handled by the County of San Mateo.

The city's budget was overspent last year partly because of the council's decision to take advantage of WPA funds to construct some $86,000 worth of storm sewers, the city actually putting up only about $11,000 of this money, Dimmitt said.

PORT BUDGET $29,360

The Port of Redwood City's budget, already adopted by the port commissioners, calls for expenditures of $29,360, $20,960 going to operation costs and $8400 to capital expenditures. Revenue will come from: Cash on hand, $6205.18; accounts receivable, $828.42; estimate revenue, $20,800; contribution by city from bond fund, $1526.40.

'MR. CHIPS' AT SEQUOIA SUNDAY

Terry Kilburn and Robert Donat in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips"

How the movies rose from a sideshow curiosity in only 40 years to become the fifth largest industry in the United States today, and a great modern art as well, is vividly portrayed in the latest March of Time starting Sunday at the Fox Sequoia Theater. Entitled "The Movies March On," the film also shows how Hollywood's 30,000 craftsmen, actors, and executives are working today to please the 250 million movie-goers, and how they are planning to conform with the public's new ideas of entertainment in 1939.

Tracing the steps in the growth of the movies from the earliest "flickers" of 40 years ago, this new March of Time shows memorable scenes from 24 old-time films, each of which marked the beginning of a new phase in motion picture history. Painstakingly selected by March of Time's editors after months of research in the Film Library of New York's Museum of Modern Art, the scenes include the now-celebrated May Irwin-John C. Rice kiss—a scene that amazed and scandalized audiences in 1896—and "The Great Train Robbery" of 1903, the first attempt to tell a story in motion pictures.

How the movies developed their first "trends" in the serial thrillers and "Westerns" of 1914, the origin of the chase technique in Mack Sennett's comedies, the significance of the first film spectacle, the perfection of the silent film during the early 1920's and finally the advent of sound in 1927, are all traced and illustrated in "The Movies March On."

Thus, in this issue of the March of Time, nearly 30 famous actors live again — Theda Bara, the screen's first vamp; No. 1 cowboy, William S. Hart; Rudolf Valentino, the greatest romantic idol in movie history; Charlie Chaplin, Mabel Normand, Mary Pickford, John Gilbert, Mary Garden, and many others whose performances gave the movies a great tradition.

With this tradition recaptured in its story of the rise of the industry, March of Time's examination of Hollywood today has special force, and the future of the movies — briefly previewed in the film—becomes something to look forward to.

Youth Stealing Swim Drowns On Mills Estate

Report of Second Boy Perishing Believed To Be False

Trespassing is only a misdemeanor, but fate stepped in to make the penalty death Sunday for an 18-year-old San Francisco boy who was enjoying an illegal swim in Upper Mills Lake on the Ogden Mills Estate.

The youth, Robert Bowman, 18, died despite heroic efforts of a companion, Carl Hill, 15, who was swimming with Bowman across the deep, 100-yard lake that is one of three reservoirs on the Milibrae estate of the late financier.

When Bowman, who was a poor swimmer, sank suddenly, without even an outcry, Hill, himself only a fair swimmer, dived for his companion. He managed to bring him to the surface twice before the struggling lad broke free and sank again, this time to remain under water for three hours until his body was recovered in 30 feet of water by grappling hooks of the sheriff's office and the Millbrae Fire Department.

Hill said that his terrified companion, after he had brought him to the surface for the last time, dragged him under and Hill was forced to break free to save his own life.

Fears that another boy, said to be about 14, had also perished in the lake Sunday were deprecated both by Millbrae firemen who dragged for the second body until 9 o'clock that night and by officials of the Mills Estate.

The firemen and officials said that lack of any unclaimed clothing on the banks made it seem likely that the "body" seen floating by Mrs. Cecila Johnson of San Francisco and her two sons, Terrence and Ross, was probably a piece of paper or some other object.

The sandwich is said to get its name from the Earl of Sandwich, who so loved his games that his only food for days would be a piece of meat between two slices of bread.

Bond Issue Seen For M. P. Center

MENLO PARK, Aug. 2—Possibility that a $10,000 bond issue may be voted upon in Menlo Park to finance a $40,000 WPA recreation center project was seen today following a meeting of delegates from civic organizations.

Twenty citizens discussed the proposed WPA project to improve the new recreational center of the city.

No definite proposals were offered except that further opinion of residents is necessary before any petition is circulated to place the bond issue on the ballot.

Also brought up was the proposal for a bond issue to make possible street improvements in Menlo Park, but there was no discussion on this subject.

A second meeting under the auspices of the chamber of commerce will be held Aug. 14.

Requests Made By Two Groups

This paper was in the free want ad business today—but it didn't object because the two organizations for whom the ads are hereby run are indisputably worthy:

The Redwood City Municipal Band wants some more musicians — particularly musicians who can play the clarinet, flute, piccolo, French or alto horn or oboe.

Redwood City Chapter, American Red Cross, wants some old books or magazines for chapels located in far-off Shanghai and the Philippines.

Director Bernard W. McCann, who placed the free ad for the band, said that anyone interested in joining could meet with the band at the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight. At that time, he said, the band is to decide if it will give another concert this coming Sunday.

Mrs. Z. T. Thorning, president of the Red Cross chapter, said that western or detective books and magazines, Readers Digest, science books or magazines or other publications suitable for men are needed. They may be left between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. any day except Saturday or Sunday at the city recreation department in the old library building on Broadway at Jefferson Ave., and should be left before Aug. 10 so they may be sent away on a transport going shortly after that to the Orient.

On the same transport will go 700 bandages made by Redwood City women for use in China. Under supervision of Mrs. J. D. Hedge, a group of women prepared the bandages at the girl's clubroom at Sequoia High School from material purchased by the Red Cross.

Aiding the work were Mesdames Vincent Malone, Bryce Muir, Richard Schmidt Jr., Harold Putnam, Louis C. La Mont, Beale Ridgway, George Gunther, N. C. Cummings, George Bloxham, H. M. Hinchman; Mrs. Helen Cossitt; Misses Cleone Cummings, Marian Cossitt, Patty Hinchman, Mary Schmidt, Pauline and Lizette O'Brien, and Alice McCarthy.

Mrs. Thorning reported that the Red Cross' appeal for clothing and furniture for the Cruz and Reinosa families, burned out July 21, had been generous and that the two families were now well supplied.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

GAITIES AUGUST 12

MENLO PARK, Aug. 4—Aug. 12 will be a big day at the Menlo Park Circus Club when crowds will come from all over the Peninsula and San Francisco to enjoy the performance, "Gold Coast Gaities." It will cost $1000 to put on the entertainment but the minimum price of admissions is to be $2.50. Proceeds are to go to the Stanford Convalescent Home.

Wilburn Carduff, residing on Williow Rd., suffered a severe illness during the past week. His mother and sister, Mrs. Thornton, who were vacationing at Lake Tahoe, were summoned to his bedside.

Miss Carmel O'Keefe observed her birthday Monday by giving a dinner to a few friends at her Oak Grove Ave. home. Three of the guests were from San Francisco. After the dinner a dance was enjoyed at the Circus Club.

Miss Bertha Kuck and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Welch, sold the Germania Hale Corner on Broadway, Redwood City, last week for approximately $20,000. The property had been in the Kuck family since the middle sixties. A small portion of the block still remains in the family name.

The opening of the deer season on Monday saw many local hunters on the trails of the fleet-footed animals. Thus far no deer have been killed in any of the nearby hills. W. T. Casey and Frank Gainer sought hte haunts of the game. They shot one above Woodside but like the big trout it got away in the tall timber and could not be found.

Mrs. Dorothy Fisher and her young son, Forrest, are down from Portland, Ore., for a two months' visit with Mrs. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor. Many parties are planned in her honor by schoolmates.

At the last meeting of the city council a new policeman was provided for, increasing the force from four to five members. The regulations call for one officer for every 1000 of the population. Menlo Park has just reached the limit of 5000. The city is the fastest growing community on the Peninsula and this is due to the climate—which is "best by government test." It is said the new officer will come from out of town.

Agents of the State Highway Commission were here during the week, seeking rights-of-way for widening the highway from Oak Grove Ave. to Menlo Ave. It is said the old O'Keefe property on Oak Grove has been purchased and that the new store building on the corner soon will be dismantled. The long-delayed widening will start, it is said, in two months.

The halls were decorated with flags and greens. Gifts were presented the installing officer. Superior Deputy Grand Pres. Mrs. Martha Bernasque also was an honored guest. Visitors were present from Bonita and San Bruno Parlors, and San Jose. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

On Sunday of the last week of the San Mateo County Fiesta the Native Sons and Daughters are planning to entertain the members of the order throughout the state. Invitations are being sent to all the grand officers to be guests of the San Mateo County parlors that day.

Miraculous Escape Made

PALO ALTO, Aug. 2—Miraculously escaping death in a grade crash in which his companion was killed, Reno Thomas, 40-year-old Negro bootblack of Mountain View, fought for his life in Santa Clara County Hospital today while funeral arrangements were being made for Richard E. Barling, 30, Mountain View laundry truck driver.

The 10-year-old coupe in which the pair were riding was struck at 7:45 o'clock last night at the Diss Rd. crossing a half mile south of the Mayfield depot. The machine was carried a quarter of a mile and tossed into a ditch beside the tracks after its two occupants had been hurled out.

Dep. Coroner Irving Minahan said that Barling was instantly killed. Thomas, employed in a barber shop, suffered a possible broken back, internal injuries and brain concussion. He was treated first at Palo Alto Hospital.

When Engineer Harry Watson of San Francisco halted his deadheading locomotive he discovered that it was unable to proceed until the cow catcher had been unbolted to permit extrication of the demolished machine from the side of the engine.

Highway patrolmen said that John L. Hanna of Los Altos was traveling behind the doomed machine and saw the crash. Apparently, officers said, the driver, believed to be Barling, tried to beat the locomotive to the crossing.

World Champion Horse Succumbs

Chief of Longview, the world's king of saddle horses, died Tuesday at the Why Worry Farm of Mrs. W. P. Roth at Woodside. The Chief was 17 years old.

Champion five-gaited show horse, the Chief was a $35,000 gift to Mrs. Roth from her mother. He came from the Lula Long Coombs Longview farm at Lee's Summit, Mo., and twice won the $10,000 stallion stake at the Kentucky State Fair, a record unequaled.

The copper-colored sorrel was raised and trained by Lonnie Hayden, whom Mrs. Roth hired from the Longview farms as man-

New Postmaster Looms for Belmont

BELMONT, July 31—Indications were today that Mrs. Kathleen Rousseau, recent target of organized criticism, would soon be replaced as postmaster at Belmont.

John G. Smith, Democratic central committeeman, disclosed that three other persons had placed among the top three in the recent civil service test and that the high man, Francis P. (Frank) O'Brien, had received the indorsement of the committee for the position.

O'Brien, long-time resident here and civic leader, is the son of Belmont pioneers, the late J. J. and Mrs. Christine O'Brien. He is a carpenter.

Placing second, it was reported, was Mrs. Pearl Buchan. Mrs. Irene Johnson placed third in the test.

One of the top three will become postmaster, Mrs. Rousseau being eliminated from consideration when she failed to attain one of the three places in the competitive examination, it was explained. Recommendation of the committee for O'Brien was telegraphed to Washington, Smith said. Senator Downey will make his recommendation to the president, who in turn will recommend to the senate appointment of someone to the postmastership. It was believed that O'Brien, having placed high and having won committee indorsement, would get the job.

15-Cent Tax Boost Planned in Belmont

BELMONT, Aug. 2—A 15-cent increase in Belmont's tax rate for the current year over last year loomed today as the result of final action on the budget taken by the city council this week. The $80,000 budget will require an 85-cent tax rate, heavy increases being planned in street work, police protection and and establishment of zoning. The council also introduced an ordinance providing for two-hour parking limits in the business section.

O'Connell Confirmed As Postmaster Here

The U. S. Senate has confirmed the nomination by Preident Roosevelt of Robert E. O'Connell Jr. to continue permanently as postmaster in Redwood City.

RAILROAD SUIT CONTINUED

Trial of the complaint of Ocean Shore Railroad and the McNee Estate Co. for return of taxes paid on land sought for the Ocean Shore Hwy. right-of-way was continued to Oct. 3 Tuesday by Judge Maxwell McNutt after attorneys argued the case. No testimony was taken, although Supervisor John W. Poole and ex-supervisors Manuel Francis, Rosalie M. Brown and Thomas L. Hickey had been subpenaed.

Head Injury Suffered In Auto Mishap Here

Augustini Giannini, 51, who lives at Hotel De Redwood, Main St., was suffering from a possibly serious head injury in Community Hospital today, after being struck on Main St. near Middlefield Rd. at 9:25 o'clock Tuesday night by a car driven by Beatrice J. Repetti, 17, of 44 Orchard Ave., Redwood City.

Bonded Debt Also Figured

Pertinent to local taxpayers are three studies reported on in this month's Tax Digest, published by the California Taxpayers Association and received here this week:

1. Tax levies by the governmental units in San Mateo County totaled $4,068,967 for the year 1938-39, an average of $42.83 for each and every man, woman, and child in the county.

Included in the $4,068,967 taxes levied were $1,086,344 for general county purposes, $105,498 for county bonds, $1,405,289 for school purposes, $305,516 for school bonds, $181,923 in special district taxes, and $984,397 in city taxes, the association stated.

The county ranked 12th from the highest in amount of taxes levied per capita by counties, the association found. The five counties with the lowest levies per capita were Mono, $19.95; Imperial, $20.50; Nevada, $21.93; Trinity, $25.41; and Siskiyou, $25.43. The five counties in which total local taxes per capita were highest were Kern, $62.04; San Luis Obispo, $53.58; Orange, $53.19; San Francisco, $50.90; and Ventura, $47.73.

2. The city of Redwood City owed a bonded debt of $53.24 for each man, woman, and child in the city at the close of the fiscal year 1938. Total bonded indebtedness of the city was $692,142 and the per capita debt of $53.24 based on the city clerk's estimate of the population of the city, shows the city ranking 28th from the highest among the 247 cities owing bonded indebtedness in the state.

Payments by the city for debt service during the year amounted to $78,488, of which $23,145 went for interest and $55,343 for redemption, the association found.

Eight cities had bonded indebtedness of over $100 per capita, the association stated. The cities included Vernon, Seal Beach, Los Angeles, Newport Beach, Pasadena, Beverly Hills, Eureka, and Stockton.

3. San Mateo County had a total welfare case load of 1476 in May, 1939. The county's welfare load was made up of 923 aged, 272 children cases, 22 blind, and 259 indigent cases. There were 290 cases receiving SRA aid in the county in April, 1939, the latest month for which statistics were available, the association found.

Throughout the state there were 213,680 cases receiving county welfare aid in May and 98,424 cases receiving SRA aid in April, the association stated. A case, the association pointed out, may be one or several persons. Indigent and children cases, especially, comprise all the indigents or children in a family. Of the total of 213,680 cases receiving aid, 130,832 were aged, 38,114 were children, 6393 were blind, and 38,341 were indigent, it was found.

Expenditures for charities and corrections, under which the county's welfare case load payments fall, amounted to 40 per cent of San Mateo County's expenditures for 1937-38, the association stated, pointing out that great care in determining eligibility for relief must be exercised.

MEMENTOES OF 1906 ERA FOUND IN RAZING OF PHELPS' HOME

Discovery of papers, cards and coins buried in a cornerstone of the historic old Timothy Guy Phelps home on Holly St., San Carlos, just off El Camino Real, was made known Monday by William (Bill) Maloney, 2680 El Camino Real, Redwood City, who made the discovery.

Among the mementoes, believed to have been buried when the home was remodeled in 1906, some time after the death of U. S. Senator Phelps, who was known as "President Lincoln's adviser for affairs on the coast," was a "mourning card" with the name, "Mrs. Timothy Guy Phelps."

Young Maloney, a Sequoia High School student, said the articles were buried in a layer of bricks near the front entrance of the old house, recently razed by workmen. The articles were in a tin receptacle, in a dusted, decaying condition caused by continued seepage of water.

A Market Street Car Co. transfer, with the notation, "transfer used day before earthquake and fire in San Francisco," scribbled on the back, also was among the articles. Another piece of paper listed the following names: "Mr(s). B. Kreger," "H. F. Willmarth, 6/20/06," "Jack McGuire—June 20, 1906," "Michael O'Donnell — hod carrier," and "Ethel McLean — June 20, '06."

Four coins, apparently new at the time the things were buried, were tarnished and showed signs of erosion.

The Phelps estate originally included San Carlos and surrounding territory. Phelps came to California with the 1849 gold rush from New York, where he was a young lawyer. He was elected to the state assembly in 1856, representing the joint district of San Francisco and San Mateo Counties, following this with two terms in the state senate. In 1861, he was elected to Congress, and in later years held such positions as collector of the port of San Francisco, regent of the University of California, and chairman of Lick Observatory.

In 1888 Phelps sold 200 acres to a syndicate connected with the Southern Pacific Co. who undertook the project of developing the present site of San Carlos, and at that time was known as the finest station between San Francisco and Santa Barbara.

Money To Aid Road Bureau

The San Mateo County Road Department, operating with reduced personnel on borrowed funds, Monday welcomed announcement from State Controller Harry B. Riley that he had apportioned $58,593.21 in gasoline tax funds to San Mateo County for the quarter which ended June 30.

While the money had not been deposited at Redwood City, the announcement of the apportionment brought a brighter financial outlook to the county department. The apportionment was about the amount expected, accountants stated.

The department borrowed $15,000 from reserve funds to carry on operations to Aug. 1, and $2000 more from the county relief committee to continue relief projects. Despite these borrowings the department was forced to lay off 20 men June 12. Grant told the board of supervisors last week that his department is embarrassed financially by deduction of $42,000 each year from gas tax income to repay state relief bonds. He said if the deductions continued the department would be forced to close up for a time.

June 30 apportionments were based on a total of 39,865 vehicles registered in San Mateo County. Controller Riley apportioned $11,427,956.94, of which $3,809,318.98 was distributed to counties. Riley said this was the largest apportionment ever made for a quarter ending June 30, and is 1.24 per cent greater than the apportionment for the same period last year.

'Y' May Sponsor Project To Secure Civic Building

Different Setup Is Considered

Tentative plans which if carried out would see formation of a Sequoia High School District YMCA which would sponsor aquisition of a central office building here to be used as a meeting place for clubs of all kinds were disclosed to the Menokirk Club last night by Thomas W. Badley, executive secretary of Peninsula Branch, Young Men's Christian Association.

A full-time secretary for this district alone would be one of the features of the plan, Badley explained, pointing out that there is more YMCA activity in this district than in any other section of the county, yet there is only the supervision that can be given by a secretary who must work elsewhere in the county also.

Negotiations have been begun for a site and building for the office and clubrooms, Badley said, but because they are very incomplete, details are not ready for publication. The building would provide meeting rooms for clubs, associations or organizations, reading and play rooms for the general public, office space for such organization as the YMCA, Scouts or others if desired, probably housekeeping quarters for a caretaker, and other features.

Various civic organizations would be called upon to aid in furnishing and equipping the structure.

The Redwood City Committee of Management for the "Y" is working on the plans.

The Menokirk Club, a men's organization affiliated with the First Methodist Church, indorsed the proposal. It also went on record as favoring start of acquisition by the city council as soon as possible of a site for a city recreation center. The two projects will not conflict, Badley explained, the city's center providing facilities for outdoor games such as baseball diamond and possibly a swimming pool eventually, while the YMCA-sponsored civic project would provide only a building and room for recreation which can be enjoyed indoors.

The club, meeting for a barbecue dinner at the home of Kenneth L. Bowen, 114 Hudson St., changed its meeting day to the last Tuesday of each month and welcomed in as new members Wilmer Osborn, John Polglase, Kenneth Sanders, James Stirling, George Bell, Louis C. Christensen and J. H. Morrison.

WPA Show Starts Out on 'Its Own'

When the lights blaze the name "Swing Mikado" over the Geary Theater Monday night, this rhythmic, stream-lined version of the most popular of Gilbert & Sullivan operettas expects to make drama history in San Francisco.

It will be the first Federal Theater Project company to go out into the world "on its own." When it opened on Treasure Island it was a hit there as it was when produced in Chicago and on Broadway.

Paul Posz, manager, has kept the original organization intact, many of whom took part in "Run Little Chillun." Gordon Lange will direct, with Jester Hairston, associate. Swing arrangements are largely by Elmer Keeton.

Joe Trent, composer of "Muddy Water," has written a special song prologue. Orchestra will be directed by Foster Cope, composer-conductor.

The cast will include Hairston as Ko-Ko, Lord High Executioner; Joseph James, Justitia Davis, Margaret Swanigan, Shirley Williams, Everett Boucre, Newton Baker, Viola Lee and Eugene Anderson as The Mikado.

Tickets are on sale at the Geary Theater.

Dimmitt Aids Plans For Brazil Reunion

City Manager Charles L. Dimmitt was going ahead today with plans to hold a reunion of former associates on the Madeira-Mamore' railroad project in Brazil, he revealed. The dinner gathering is to be held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, Aug. 12.

The exact number of guests to be present at the dinner has not yet been set, Dimmit said. He has contacted many former engineers and other workers on the 1907-1914 project, and still is receiving replies.

The railroad, still the only such road in the Amazon Basin, was built by the Brazilian government to aid in the transportation of raw rubber from a rich field 1800 miles from the mouth of the Amazon, in the heavy jungle. The river at that point is made unnavigable by falls and rapids, and the railroad takes the place of a portage, Dimmitt said. It is about 180 miles in length.

Quo Warranto Suit Is Filed

Dr. Roy C. Labachotte, Redwood City chiropractor, and Atty Gen. Earl Warren instituted quo warranto proceedings in Alameda County Superior Court to determine whether the chiropractor was succeeded legally by a new appointee on the state board of chiropractic examiners Apr. 5 last.

The petition set forth that Dr. Labachotte was appointed to the state board by former Governor Merriam Dec. 31, 1939, to fill a vacancy caused by the expiration of a term.

It also pointed out that Governor Olson later appointed Dr. Franklin Morris of Oakland to the same post.

Dr. Labachotte has contended Merriam named him for a three-year term and therefore Governor Olson could not name a successor.

The question at issue involving the time of the beginning of board terms, dating back to the establishment of the board in 1922.

Judge McNutt Hears Cement Firm Trial

Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt of San Mateo County, a locality where a cement plant is a major industry, will hear the trial next Wednesday in San Jose of the injunction suit of 290 Los Altos property owners against the Permanente Corp. to stop building and operation of a cement plant in the Los Altos hills.

Judge McNutt presided yesterday at a preliminary hearing in the Santa Clara County court because a crowded calendar there did not permit one of that county's judges hearing the case immediately.

Next Wednesday, Judge McNutt will hear expert testimony of Dr. Robert E. Swain of Stanford University, to be offered by the corporation, and also will entertain a motion by the property holders' counsel for a continuance of the case. Time of the trial is considered of vital importance to both sides. The corporation has already started construction of the plant in order to be ready to deliver cement for Shasta Dam by Mar. 1, 1940, on the firm's contract with the U. S. government, but owners are trying to stop the construction work.

Gravestones are forbidden in a large Glendale cemetery.

S. S. F. Post Office Work Due in Fall

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, July 31—This city, which like Burlingame has been awarded a new post office, will see construction work on the new federal building begin early this Fall, according to Postmaster John Quinlan.

As compared to the $215,000 allotted Burlingame, the South San Francisco appropriation was for $111,000, of which $14,000 has already been spent for the site at the corner of Linden and Miller Aves.

Bids are expected to be awarded Aug. 18, when they are opened in Washington. The new building will be of simple but modern architecture, according to Quinlan. A feature at the front of the building will be three murals showing three phases of South San Francisco transportation — rail, water and air.

Bike Riders: Take a Look!

Clever but sound advice to bicycle riders is contained in "Bulletin No. 4" issued today by the San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission, which copies suggestions printed by the National Safety Council in a booklet called "Sammy Sprocket Says."

The safe-rider code of "Sammy Sprocket" is as follows:

1. Obey all traffic signs and rules.
2. Always signal before making turns.
3. Walk across heavy traffic.
4. Ride single file—don't weave about.
5. Watch carefully at railroad crossings.
6. Keep out of car tracks and ruts.
7. Never "stunt" or race in traffic.
8. Avoid all "hitching"—it's dangerous.
9. Never carry passengers or drag children.
10. Carry parcels in racks or carriers.
11. Use extra caution on all sidewalks.
12. Get off the roadway to make repairs.
13. Wear light-colored clothing at night.

Sammy Sprocket further says:

It isn't enough to KNOW ABOUT Safety—You've got to WANT TO RIDE safely.

Obey all the official signs, signals and other traffic rules. They are for your protection and the protection of all other persons. As a bicycle rider, you have the responsibility to obey them, just as you expect the automobile driver to obey them.

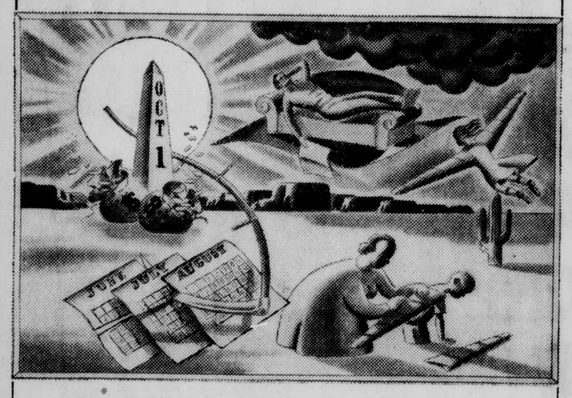

Use arm signals to indicate your intention to slow down, stop, or turn. Ride close to the right side of the road. Turn right-hand corners close to right curb. If you intend to turn left across traffic, make sure the way is safe. Make a wide turn.

Look carefully for cross-traffic at every intersection before riding on. If busy intersections have no traffic signal lights, get off your bicycle and walk across. Be courteous to all pedestrians.

Ride single file—don't wobble, zig-zag or weave about. This is dangerous because automobile drivers cannot know what you mean to do. Don't pass vehicles when other traffic is close behind you—wait until it has gone by.

A surrealist artist presents his impressions for a GAS HEATING advertisement

IN GENERAL the setting is on the desert to connote the purity and cleanliness of heat such as we who live within four walls enjoy from modern gas heating equipment. Storm clouds in the distance signify the threat of winter which can never disturb the carefree detachment of the characters depicted in the foreground.

A summer sun, the surrealist explains, represents the Summer Discount on Gas Heating Equipment for those who buy now. The milepost lettered OCT. 1 means monthly payments are put off into the distant future, while the bursting money bags represent the 10% Saving.

A scythe cutting up calendar pages denotes the passing of summer. June is slashed away. July is likewise slashed in twain. Only August remains unscathed. It is the final month of the Summer Discount on Gas Heating Equipment.

Though the clouds of winter swirl on the horizon, a mother fits wings to her little boy. A girl child flies carefree in the sky. This scene indicates that once gas heating is installed, a family may feel free as birds with worries of winter heating gone forever.

The man on the magic carpet signifies that here is a soul made free of earthly problems—released from the task of tending a household fire.

Now to return to reality, the message is this: This is the last month of the Summer Discount on Gas Heating Equipment. Buy Now. Save 10%. Monthly payments do not start until October 1.

Tragic Love Story at End

The last chapter of a tragic love story was being written today as relatives planned funeral services for Alexander Lees, the San Matean who only a few weeks ago following a sensational suit in Redwood City Superior Court was adjudged to be the father of 1½-year-old Brenda Alexis Lees, daughter of Miss Pauline J. Williams.

A suicide bullet nullified the court's verdict that the baby should have a father and that he should contribute $30 a month for the child's support. The body of Lees, 36-year-old San Francisco bank clerk, was found slumped in his coupe late yesterday near the south gate of Bay Meadows Race Track, a bullet wound in his temple just above his right eye.

Although the young man left no notes, police said it was plainly a case of suicide. He apparently had driven to the spot sometime Monday night, for his automobile was seen there at 5 a.m. yesterday. But it was not until William Peterson, resident of the Old County Rd. in San Mateo, quit work at the race track in the afternoon and left for home that he suspected anything might be wrong in the closed car. When he saw the machine still in the spot where it had been in the morning, he notified San Mateo police.

Chief Thomas Burke and Inspt. Robert O'Brien investigated, theorizing as they drove to the track that the car probably had been stolen and abandoned.

When they peered inside, they were shocked to see the body of Lees, slumped to the left side of the car, in his hands a .22 calibre rifle, its stock resting on the floorboards.

Friends said that Lees had been brooding ever since Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt ordered him on June 29 to pay $150 attorney fees and $59.15 court costs involved in the trial in addition to the monthly support charges. Lees had stoutly maintained his belief that he was not the father of the baby, although admitting that he had been intimate with Miss Williams, 24-year-old stenographer in a San Francisco manufacturing firm's office, when she was a student at San Mateo Junior College and they had been neighbors. Lees lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lees, at 141 Elm St., San Mateo.

In the trial, Miss Williams introduced seven love letters and a valentine from Lees, and testified that Lees had promised to marry her. Her suit demanded $100 a month support for the baby.

Despite the notoriety from the trial, one of the most sensational in local courts in some time, Lees continued with his position at the Crocker First National Bank in San Francisco, and was on the job Monday.

His body was taken first to the mortuary of Coroner William F. Crosby, then removed to the E. L. Patterson Funeral Home, San Mateo. This morning Lees' parents made arrangements to have it taken to their home, where private funeral services will be held, probably Friday morning, followed by interment in St. John's Cemetery at San Mateo.

BOY HIT BY R. C. AUTOIST

Charles Scheller, 6, San Francisco, suffered cuts and bruises when he was struck by an automobile driven by Howard F. Menge, 23, Redwood City, at 3 p. m. Sunday. The accident occurred on Belmont Ave. near Jefferson Ave. Menge was charged with driving an automobile with faulty brakes.

Former Woodside Girl Passes Away

Mrs. Robert Steiner, whose marriage in September, 1937, at the Herbert Clayburgh home at Woodside to Robert D. Steiner was a social event, was buried Monday following services in San Francisco. The beautiful 21-year-old girl died of complications following childbirth. The baby, a boy, also died.

The former Doris Clayburgh was a graduate of Miss Hamlin's School. She and her young husband met at Stanford University, and were married following their graduation. For a year they made their home in Chicago, returning a few months ago to establish residence in Berkeley.

Besides her husband and parents, a brother, Philip Barth Clayburgh, survives Mrs. Steiner.

The funeral services, private, were conducted at the Clayburgh home on Cherry St., San Francisco.

Junior College's Right To Assess Outsiders Hit

The Civic League of San Mateo County has challenged the authority of the San Mateo Junior College District to collect some $36,000 in taxes from areas outside of its boundaries.

Such collections are tantamount to "taxation without representation," the league charged in a letter to the board of supervisors asking a ruling from the district attorney and the attorney general on the validity of such levies.

"The people and the taxpayers of the Sequoia, South San Francisco and Pescadero High School Districts have no representation on the board of trustees of the junior college district, nor a voice in the election of the board's members," the letter read. "However, they have been taxed each year for the support of the junior college, such tax originating with the board of trustees . . ."

The letter was referred to Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell.

Crash Brings Terms In Jail for Autoists

Eladio Mendoza, 40, Firebaugh, and Frank Garcia, 55, San Jose, were given jail terms by Judge Manuel Bettencourt in Half Moon Bay on Monday after their automobile Saturday night tore down 30-feet of an implement warehouse owned by Edward Frey at Lobitos, six miles south of Half Moon Bay.

Mendoza, the driver, failed to make a turn and sent the machine crashing into the building, said State Highway Patrolman Jack Quinlan. Mendoza was sentenced to 25 days in jail for drunk driving, Garcia to five days for being drunk on a public highway.
